

Sustainable Development Seen through the Lens of Cultural Heritage

Seminar for graduate students

27 September, 10-18

Jakobi 2-114, Tartu

Moderated by Elo-Hanna Seljamaa

Associate Professor of Estonian and Comparative Folklore

UNESCO Chair on Applied Studies on Intangible Cultural Heritage, University of Tartu

10.00	Registration, coffee and tea
10.15–10.30	Introduction	Kristin Kuutma Elo-Hanna Seljamaa
10.30–12.00	Presentation Living heritage in the sustainable development era: emerging social and political uses	Chiara Bortolotto
	Coffee break
12.15–13.00	Presentation Minority Language as Heritage: the case of the Grecanico, and Sami languages	Stavroula Pipyrrou (online) Rory Cassie
	Lunch
14.00–15.30	Workshop Making futures by living heritage. ICH in regenerative sustainability	Jorijn Neyrinck
	Coffee break
15.45–16.30	Presentation Critical Junctures, Museums and Sleeper Agents. The global impact/potential of the Basic Texts on Safeguarding Intangible Cultural Heritage.	Marc Jacobs
	Coffee break
17.00–18.00	Round table discussion with the participation of all lecturers	Moderated by Elo-Hanna Seljamaa and Kristin Kuutma
18.30	Dinner at Café Truffe (Raekoja plats 16)	